WORKING COVER

The first thing I do with every issue is change the cover. Even if it's not the photo we are going to use, to me it means a new month. This photo of Kaleena from photographer Fred Jennings was the working cover for November. I was a little worried about an exposed back side on the cover (Facebook) but...Great photo!

Okay TLM had heard a few rumors that Nick Cannon and Mariah Carey had split but we never followed up on it.

Now that this pick has surfaced we decided to verify everything and YES, according to our sources, they have actually split up. That means Nick is single and possibly out on a date with Amber Rose!

Sure, we don't know the context of the photo. They could just be good friends who were hanging out for the day at an amusement park. What we do know is these are two recently single people...together! Forgive me for saying this but in my opinion, this would be an upgrade for Amber and downgrade for Nick. Going from billionaire to gold digger is definitely not a good look...BIG ASS or not!

This really isn't gossip but I found this freakin' hilarious!

There was a 24' tall "tree" unveiled in the upscale Place Vendôme shopping area of Paris.

I'm not sure if everyone in the world would recognize what the "tree" resembled, so here's a picture →

The picture on the right is a sexual device referred to as a butt plug. An unidentified group cut the "tree" down but you can't tell me that a 24' tall butt plug in upscale Paris isn't comical.

STORY OF THE MONTH

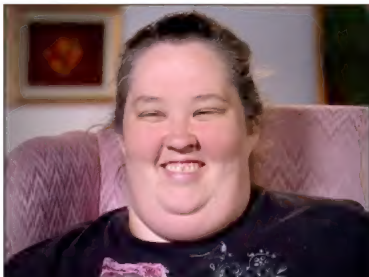

Bye-Bye Honey Boo Boo!

The Learning Channel/TLC (tell me that's not a joke) has cancelled the popular series due to bad choices by Mama June.

Seems that Mama June has dumped Sugar Bear in favor of Mark McDaniel - a recently released inmate who had just served 10 years for aggravated child molestation.

The piece of shit aka Mark molested the eight year old daughter of the woman he was dating at the time.

June denies the relationship.

There was a rally funny joke on the Oct. 17th episode of Bill Maher. The short summary was that if you were just being released after considerable time in jail you would be surprised to know that "You have a really big ass," in today's society is a compliment.

Out of the list of candidates, I would have to say that CoCo's body is amazing but almost cartoonish and who is Iggy? I'm a long time admirer of J. Bo Derek

Born Mary Cathleen Collins, Bo became romantically involved with John Derek at the tender age of 16. John really went out of his way to get together with Mary, divorcing his wife, actress Linda Evans (who was also smoking hot) and moving to Germany to avoid statutory rape charges. When Bo became of age, the couple returned to the states and John gave his muse/wife the Hollywood treatment. He bleached her hair blonde and renamed her Bo Derek. She earned a role in the film 10, opposite Dudley Moore, and the rest is history. She became one of the top sex symbols of the 1980's!

Top Floor Magazine answers the questions submitted to the Playboy Advisor

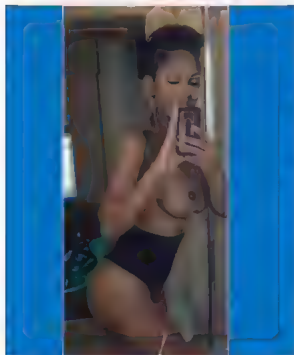

Just how identical are identical twins in terms of their bodies? Do identical female twins have the same size, shape and color areolae? Do identical male twins have the same penis shape and size (both flaccid and erect)?—D.Q., Reno, Nevada

Just due to the genetic makeup of people in general, it's highly unlikely that identical twins are actually identical. Women tend to have breast that aren't the same size. Men and women have slight differences in the size of their left and right foot, eyesight and so on. It's highly unlikely that there are actual identical, identical twins.

I have a problem as old as time—or at least as old as best friends and their girlfriends. A couple of months into his latest relationship, a buddy of mine is deeply embroiled in la-la land. I'm happy for him, but the problem is I can't stand being around his new girlfriend. Of course I know the important thing is how they feel about each other. Still, I can't help but wonder if there's an acceptable way to say to him, "I miss seeing you without her." Or do I just wait until the honeymoon phase is over and he rediscovers his need for time away from his girlfriend? I've pretty much resigned myself to the latter, but is there an appropriate alternative?—T.W., Denver, Colorado

Awww...you love him. Okay, here's what you do...invite him out to dinner and perhaps a movie. Show up with a single red rose! While at dinner, engage him in conversation but try not to spend too much time talking about yourself. Make every attempt to seem sincerely interested in what he's saying. During the movie...make your move! Caress his hand, rub his knee...OR, you can just grow a pair and realize you've been dumped for an actual woman! WOW!

LEAKED

Meagan Good

Back in the early days of IM, you have no idea how hard it was to stumble across the ever so elusive "leaked" photo from a celebrity.

Nowadays, what used to be considered leaked photos have become a flood!

One of the latest offerings comes from actress Meagan Good.

In response to the leak, Meagan tweeted...

"We all know that these pictures were for my husband...and at the end of the day we all know how I feel about my titties..."

Hmm, actually we didn't...until now!

TOP FLOOR 101

How NOT to get your NUDE photos hacked

With the recent dump of a celebrity hacked photos, I started thinking...what makes these celebrities think they won't have their photos hacked

It's so simple...LET'S BREAK IT DOWN!

So we have a telephone. No matter what you think, how much storage space or apps you have, at the end of the day you have a phone.

NOW...Going back to the first day that there wasn't an actual operator connecting your call, I'm sure there were a number of calls that were wrong numbers. In many cases, the caller just misdialed and there they were talking to someone that they didn't know.

As time passed, and corporations began to realize the earning potential in providing telemarketers with a list of telephone numbers - the number of calls that a person would receive from people they didn't know grew and grew.

Like the telemarketer, the hacker is just dialing numbers until they get a hit! The only difference is that in today's world that "hit" comes with access to all of the information that you have stored in that database that we still refer to as a phone.

Sure it's fun and sexy to take a provocative photo of yourself and send it to a friend, boyfriend, girlfriend, husband or wife but the moment you do - you've shared that material with the world.

It's like taking a roll of seductive photos and dropping them off at a Fotomat - you would be better off taking a polaroid and sending it through the mail.

So, the next time you decide to send a nude photo or sext...don't! It's the ONLY way to be sure that that information doesn't end up on the web.

Mockingjay, Part 1

NOVEMBER 21ST

Against all odds, Katniss Everdeen has survived the Hunger Games twice, but even though she's made it out of the bloody arena alive, she's still not safe. The Capitol is angry. The Capitol wants revenge. President Snow makes it clear that no one is safe either — not Katniss's family, not her friends and not the people of District 12.

The books are fantastic!

The story centers on Zoe, a woman in a perfectly quaint marriage. The couple are busy raising three children while devoted to their careers. However, it's not enough to fulfill all of her desires as she soon finds herself satisfying her addiction to sex with other men, which puts her on a dangerous path that she may not survive.

Ouija

Follows a group of friends attempting to make contact with a recently deceased classmate through a Ouija board who awaken a dark and terrifying presence.

Dracula Untold

Follows a young prince who, when the lives of his wife and child are put in danger by a bloodthirsty sultan, risks his soul to save them, and in the process becomes the first vampire.

Tammy

Tammy (McCarthy) is having a bad day. She's totaled her clunker car, gotten fired from her thankless job at a greasy burger joint, and instead of finding comfort at home, finds her husband getting comfortable with the neighbor in her own house.

It's time to take her boom box and book it. The bad news is she's broke and without wheels.

The worse news is her grandma, Pearl (Sarandon), is her only option—with a car, cash, and an itch to see Niagara Falls.

Not exactly the escape Tammy had in mind. But on the road, with grandma riding shotgun, it may be just what Tammy needs.

Album Release of the Month

Taylor Swift's 1989 is far removed from anything that she has released in the past. I completely get it, she really hasn't been the same since Kanye pulled that mic from her hand and show a complete disregard for her art. After years of waiting for some payback, Swift has walked away from her normal genre in favor of an offering that is a bit more Pop. 1989 is filled with radio ready tunes with catchy hooks and enough synth to bring big hair back in style. With 1989, Swift bids Nashville and possibly some fans of her country twang...farewell.

What do you look for in a man?

I look for 3 key things in a man. The most important quality in a man is to be respectful of me, my family, and modeling. Another trait I like in a man is intelligence and the desire to learn more. Yes, intelligence is sexy. Lastly, as shallow as this may be, I want my man to be in good shape. I love strong arms to hold me!

Favorite question...When it comes to matter in the bedroom, Explain it in one word?

Depending on the mood...but overall...LOUD.

The Guys from Just Guy Talk

At Top Floor, we love showcasing and promoting talented people from diverse areas of the entertainment world, and this month I had a blast interviewing one of the hosts of a hilarious podcast, Just Guy Talk

The show humorously covers men's topics such as sex, relationships, and marriage, and of course, the ultimate guy passions - grilling, cigars, sports, adult beverages, and best of ALL, hot and sexy adult stars! But first, let's meet the cast.....

Tha Dave Dog – Host & Producer

Husband, father, amateur chef and attention-whore. Love my wife, who also happens to be my best friend. Hope to raise my four boys into responsible men even though I don't always say or do the right thing. Enjoys podcasting, grilling and adult beverages with a good cigar. My motto, Do what feels good!

Pedro Norte, Co-Host

A guy that does not take life or himself too seriously and finds the best pleasures in this world are the simplest. I'm the guy with self-deprecating humor who enjoys the satire that can be found in just about anything. A Big believer in Karma with a sarcastic tilt, I love me some College football, the NFL, Lacrosse and anything that has to do with good Rum and a beach just about anywhere in the world. I play well with numbers, find big brains attractive, enjoy working out and consider myself relatively well travelled. I call Houston home.

Che Rollins, Co-Host

I'm a jack of all trades, actor, musician, barroom brawler, and amateur therapist/life coach. Big fan of Combat sports, Soccer (FC Barcelona) and the Cowboys.

Very blunt and opinionated and not at all politically correct. I love rock music, particularly punk rock. Like the rest of the Just Guy Talk crew, I'm an avid drinker with a fondness for any beer with a good amount of hops and nice strong whiskey.

Doza, Guest Co-Host

I love life women and a good stiff drink. My hobbies include watching professional sports, Go Rock-ets, comedy and having a good time. Ladies get at me!

HW: Welcome to Top Floor, Davedog! Tell us a bit about the concept of Just Guy Talk, how long you've been doing it, and how you got started in podcasting.

Dave: The concept of Just Guy Talk is basically a group of guys sitting around and talking about their favorite topics while having a few drinks. Kind of like happy hour. Che had been telling me about a sports talk show he had been a guest on. My response to him was "who the hell would want you on their show?" He explains to me it's an internet radio show. So I research it and a few days later I created Just Guy Talk. And we've been podcasting since then which is a year and a half now.

HW: Your co-hosts are really wild and funny, with their own unique personalities. . Are you guys friends off air, or how did you decide to hook up with them for the podcast? You have great on-air chemistry.

Dave: Pedro and I worked together, Che is my oldest son and Doza is a colleague. And yes we do have drinks together off air.

HW: So, let's cut to the chase and talk about one of the most important elements of Just Guy Talk...beautiful babes! You've interviewed some of the top adult stars out there. Who are some of the hot ladies you've featured on the show?

Dave: We've had Nina Hartley, Vanessa Veracruz, Nikki Delano, Nikita St. James, Brooklyn Chase, Dana Vespoli, Allison Moore, Jenna J. Ross and Jodi Taylor.

HW: What's the craziest/wildest thing a pornstar has said or done on air?

Dave: I had one young lady accuse me of asking her to have sex with me. Of course she was joking but Pedro did ask me if it was true after she went off the air.

HW: Ha! He's probably jealous lol...Is there any topic that's "off limits" or do you get into XXX territory, uncensored?

Dave: We're open minded about all sex topics as long as it's not an act that's harmful or illegal.

HW: Who would be your dream pornstar interview? Here's your chance to beg, plead and cajole her into doing the show lol...

Dave: That's a very good question. But instead of being selfish, I'd like to have Matthew McConaughey as a guest. That would impress my wife and it would also be something for the ladies to enjoy

HW: For sure! Your motto is, "do what feels good!". When you want to really feel good, what's your fave naughty activity?

Dave: A nice long session that includes porn, adult toys and sweaty bodies.

HW: Hot! You're based in Houston, Texas. What's the local club/nightlife scene there? Places you like to hang out or recommend to our readers as a good time in the city?

Dave: Houston and the surrounding areas have so many good places to hang out. The most popular places are in a downtown district known as Midtown. My favorite pub to hang out is Nobi Public House. It's a gastropub in Webster, TX which is a suburb of Houston.

HW: Finish this sentence: "the way to a guy's heart is through his....."

Dave: Chest with a very sharp knife. Ha ha! For me, it's definitely through the stomach, mind and soul. Guys want their ladies to stand by them and take care of them. Not in a motherly way. But the guy has to do the same.

HW: I agree! And hey, I've found that sometimes a very sharp knife IS necessary! Ha! Sex (of course!) is one of the main topics on Just Guy Talk. So, what's the final verdict on the Number One thing a guy wants from a girl in bed?

Dave: More oral sex! And no spitting. Although anal has really moved up the charts.

HW: Yep, swallow, swallow, swallow! lol...and yeah, anal has become something girls are almost expected to try at least once in their lives. You're the married guy on this crazy crew...what's your advice to single guys out there looking for a solid relationship?

Dave: Be confident, honest and always be yourself. In order to find the right person you have to be the right person. And lastly, relationships require 200% effort, 100% from each partner.

HW: Is the show just "for guys only" or do you talk about stuff us girls can totallyyyyyy relate to? Um...like Pina coladas, sunsets, long walks on the beach.....and vibrators lol...

Dave: We promote our show as female friendly and have had discussions on love, marriage and conflicts from both perspectives. Our biggest fan happens to be my sister-in-law.

HW: I was so turned on listening to the interview you did with my all-time fave male pornstar Derrick Pierce. So, props to you for giving us chicks some eye candy, too! Equal opportunity to the guys in the adult industry, right?

Dave: Yes, we'll have more male talent on in the future. We've also had a male dancer/stripper and I'm looking to book a male escort.

HW: Cool.... I'll definitely tune in for those shows. And maybe call in with some naughty suggestions! Your show is a really good time and a great way to unwind and just chill. Being able to laugh at the crazy BS in life is so important. What's your opinion of people who get so easily offended by honest talk about sex, porn, or politically incorrect humor?

Dave: People have to learn to relax. Everyone at some point in their lives has participated in activities that involved those three subjects. Anyone that says they haven't is lying.

HW: I noticed that the topic of adult beverages comes up quite a lot during the show! So, what's your fave beverage to get hammered on? (Responsibly, of course! lol...)

Dave: I often say the shows are alcohol fueled. Usually I alternate between a stiff Cuba Libre (rum and coke) and a fine single malt scotch.

HW: Well, keep fueling the show because it seems to work! What have you learned about yourself, your own talents and creative abilities from doing the podcast?

Dave: I've learned to challenge myself. I have a solo podcast and the most recent episode is about finding my voice through podcasting. I've always admired those individuals with the talents to write, play an instrument or act. So I encourage people to find their voice in whatever way possible. I believe everyone has a creative side to them they just have to find a way to tap into it. Once they can do that, then it's up to them to nourish it and make it grow. Getting back to the original question, I feel my writing and interviewing skills have improved. It's a continuous process.

HW: Very well said. I think all creative people feel the same way, and podcasting opens up broadcasting to the "average" person who has something to say and has a talent to put out there. It's no longer about who has "connections" in the business. What's your advice to guys/gals wanting to get into podcasting?

Dave: Podcasting is a growing community. It's a fun hobby but you have to work at it and it can be expensive. So do your research first on the idea for the show, title, the start-up process and equipment. Talk to other podcasters.

HW: Future goals for the show or other projects you/your co-hosts are involved in?

Dave: There are two other shows under the Just Guy Talk banner, Radio After Dark and my solo project, Tha Davedog Experiment.

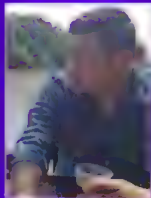

The plan is to add more shows, create a network and monetize it. But I'd really love to have the show picked up by Sirius or Playboy Radio.

HW: That would be awesome if you could expand and get more listeners and fans. Where can fans find Just Guy Talk?

DD: You can find us on Twitter, @Just_Guy_Talk, Facebook www.facebook.com/pages/just-guy-talk. We can also be found on iTunes, Stitcher and Audiboo. The show is also in syndication on The Planet Platypus Network, www.planetplatypus.com and Wildfire Radio, www.wildfireradio.com.

HW: Thanks so much for hanging out with me, have fun, keep it sexy, and don't ever stop being wild, funny, non-PC "just guys"!

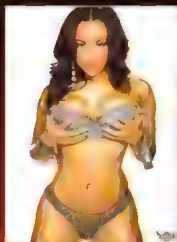

Dave: Thank you. It was my pleasure!

A mother is in the kitchen making dinner for her family when her daughter walks in. "Mother, where do babies come from?" The mother thinks for a few seconds and says, "Well dear, Mommy and Daddy fall in love and get married. One night they go into their bedroom, they kiss and hug, and have sex." The daughter looks puzzled so the mother continues, "That means the daddy puts his penis in the mommy's vagina. That's how you get a baby, honey." The child seems to comprehend. "Oh, I see, but the other night when I came into your room you had daddy's penis in your mouth. What do you get when you do that?" "Jewelry, my dear. Jewelry."

Three contractors are bidding to fix a broken fence at the White House. One is from Chicago, another is from Tennessee, and the third is from Minnesota. All three go with a White House official to examine the fence. The Minnesota contractor takes out a tape measure and does some measuring, then works some figures with a pencil. "Well," he says, "I figure the job will run about $900 $400 for materials, $400 for my crew, and $100 profit for me." The Tennessee contractor also does some measuring and figuring, then says, "I can do this job for $700. $300 for materials, $300 for my crew, and $100 profit for me." The Chicago contractor doesn't measure or figure, but leans over to the White House official and whispers, "$2,700." The official, incredulous, says, "You didn't even measure like the other guys! How did you come up with such a high figure?" The Chicago contractor whispers back, "$1000 for me, $1000 for you, and we hire the guy from Tennessee to fix the fence."

"Done!" replies the government official.

A man and woman had been married for 30 years, and in those 30 years, they always left the lights off when having sex. He was embarrassed and scared that he couldn't please her, so he always used a big dildo on her. All these years she had no clue. One day, she decided to reach over and flip the light switch on and saw that he was using a dildo. She said "I knew it, asshole, explain the dildo!" He said, "Explain the kids!"

A man was having premature ejaculation problems so he went to the doctor. The doctor said, "When you feel like you are getting ready to ejaculate, try startling yourself." That same day the man went to the store and bought himself a starter pistol and ran home to his wife. That night the two were having sex and found themselves in the 69 position. The man felt the urge to ejaculate and fired the starter pistol. The next day he went back to the doctor who asked how it went. The man answered, "Not well. When I fired the pistol, my wife pooped on my face, bit three inches off my penis, and my neighbor came out of the closet with his hands in the air."

A guy walks into a bar and orders a triple scotch.

The bartender pours him the drink and the guy downs it in one gulp. "Wow", says the bartender, "Something bad must have happened".

Yeah it did, he said. "I came home early today, went up to the bedroom, and found my wife having sex with my best friend."

The bartender pours the guy another triple shot. "This one's on the house". The dude gulps it down once again. The bartender asks "Did you say anything to your wife ?

" The guy answers "Yea, I walked up to her, told her to pack her bag's and get out !"

"What about your friend ?" asks the bartender.

"I looked him straight in the eye and said BAD DOG"

The year is 2222 and Mike and Maureen land on Mars after accumulating enough frequent flier miles. They meet a Martian couple and are talking about all sorts of things. Mike asks if Mars has a stockmarket, if they have laptop computers, how they make money, etc. Finally, Maureen brings up the subject of sex. "Just how do you guys do it?" asks Maureen. "Pretty much the way you do," responds the Martian. Discussion ensues and finally the couples decide to swap partners for the night and experience one another. Maureen and the male Martian go off to a bedroom where the Martian strips. He's got only a teeny, weeny member about half an inch long and just a quarter inch thick. I don't think this is going to work," says Maureen. "Why?" he asks, "What's the matter?" "Well," she replies, "It's just not long enough to reach me!" "No problem," he says, and proceeds to slap his forehead with his palm. With each slap of his forehead, his member grows until it's quite impressively long. "Well," she says, "That's quite impressive, but it's still pretty narrow...."

but it's still pretty narrow...."

"No problem," he says, and starts pulling his ears. With each pull, his member grows wider and wider until the entire measurement is extremely exciting to the woman.

"Wow!" she exclaims, as they fell into bed and made mad, passionate love.

The next day the couples rejoin their normal partners and go their separate ways.

As they walk along, Mike asks "Well, was it any good?"

"I hate to say it," says Maureen, "but it was pretty wonderful. How about you?"

"It was horrible," he replies, All I got was a headache. All she kept doing the whole time was slapping my forehead and pulling my ears."

THE MEDIA

Democracy by Sound Byte

The media sucks! There I said it.

I'm not just regurgitating what I've heard other people say. I actually have rock solid evidence that you really can't depend on the media to provide us with the type of information that we need to make good decisions or have a functioning democracy.

My first crystal clear example of this came in the last presidential election.

First, a little background...

For those who don't already know, my day typically starts and ends listening to the news. I start with conservative radio during my ride to work in the morning. I switch to progressive radio for at least three hours a day, then end my evening watching several news programs. On the rare occasion, I get a little more radio in before I go to bed.

Basically, it's all I do.

In the last election...day after day, no matter what network you listened to they were showing little or no hope for Barack Obama winning reelection.

They touted poll after poll, usually a select few polls that showed that the race was really close.

If you listened to conservative radio, Romney was waaaay ahead and if you listened to progressive radio they were usually criticizing the campaign for not doing more to win the election.

Long story short, after Romney's 47% comment -

There are 47 percent of the people who will vote for the president no matter what. All right, there are 47 percent who are with him, who are dependent upon government, who believe that they are victims, who believe the government has a responsibility to care for them, who believe that they are entitled to health care, to food, to housing, to you-name-it. That's an entitlement. The government should give it to them. And they will vote for this president no matter what. And I mean the president starts off with 48, 49...he starts off with a huge number. These are people who pay no income tax. Forty-seven percent of Americans pay no income tax. So our message of low taxes doesn't connect. So he'll be out there talking about tax cuts for the rich. ... My job is not to worry about those people. I'll never convince them they should take personal responsibility and care for their lives. What I have to do is convince the 5-10% in the center that are independents, that are thoughtful, that look at voting one way or the other depending upon in some cases emotion, whether they like the guy or not.

I thought for sure there would be a drastic change in the polls. It wasn't my first time at the rodeo.

I had the unfortunate experience of watching Howard Dean, a perfectly good and democratic presidential candidate in 2004 completely ruined by something as simple as a creepy scream at the end of a speech. Surely, saying MY JOB IS TO NOT WORRY ABOUT 47% OF THE AMERICAN PUBLIC WHO ARE JUST LOOKING FOR A HANDOUT, to a group of wealthy folks at a fundraiser was political suicide. Nope. As the media reported it, no drastic change in the polls.

In comparison, it became pretty fucking obvious that McCain wasn't going to win after Palin used her new found fame to earn a spot in the Dumbass Politician Hall of Fame and the media reported it as such.

So I decided to take a look at the polls myself, all the polls not just the ACME polls, especially as they pertained to states with the most electoral votes.

What I found was there was NO WAY IN THE HELL, Obama was going to lose.

From what I read, the moment California came in, the election was over, Florida and Ohio really didn't matter. Now, is that what the media was reporting?

When you look at what's happened in the news recently, have you heard much about the Ebola crisis or ISIL since the mid-terms?

Ebola hasn't been cured and ISIL hasn't gone away.

Why isn't this constantly in the news cycle?

Keep in mind that this wasn't just something that was covered in the conservative media, as I mentioned before I listen to both and I can report to you that RIGHT AFTER THE ELECTION both stories all but dropped out of the cycle faster than a stone hits bottom in shallow water.

Where is Malaysian Flight 370?

At one point, CNN was covering this story 21 hours out of their 24 hour new cycle...still not found but the story is gone.

Bridgegate - Chris Christie, is the investigation over? Was there any resolution? Is he going to jail? Or will he be one of the candidates for POTUS in 2016?

Lastly, I actually had to start logging into WhiteHouse.gov whenever the POTUS gives a speech or important press conference. Why? Because I've found that ALL of the media networks usually feature a sound byte, slap a headline on it and create whatever story they want.

I wish what I'm writing here is bullshit, so I invite you to try it. The next time the POTUS speaks, watch it in its entirety at WhiteHouse.gov, then watch the news that night and see how many of his comments are taken out of context

So where should we get our news? Where can we go to get actual information?

The only shows that I would recommend that aren't biased and provide actual information are HBO's Last Week Tonight with John Oliver and Vice.

Both shows provide facts!

John Oliver is more of a comedian but the information is spot on and Vice is everything that 60 minutes used to be and more.

The only problem with these shows are they are focused on covering topics. Rachel Maddow's show is fairly decent but can slide over into the biased world from time to time.

Sadly, the truth is...American media is dead!

There is hardly anyone out there that's digging to the bottom of a story, asking the tough questions or providing unbiased information.

Even the major networks are taking a page from Fox News' popularity book in an attempt to sell more advertising.

Gone are the days when media outlets actually trip over their own feet trying to break a major story that contains any substance. Instead they are covering Ray Rice in the elevator and tweets from Miley Cyrus while asking us to follow them on Twitter or Like them on Facebook.

Yes...media in America is dead and our democracy is soon to follow. That's just my opinion!

Jack Watson

During a press conference just days after the big win by the GOP on November 4th, a reporter asked John Boehner the following question...

"You have a new crop of conservatives coming into the house who have suggested, among other things, that women need to submit to the authority of their husbands, that Hillary Clinton is the anti-Christ and that the families of Sandy Hook victims should just get over it. So the 'Hell No' caucus as you've put it, is getting bigger...How do you deal with them differently than you did the last Congress?"

Exactly!

Do I care that the republicans have control of the House and the Senate. If you would have asked me that question 16 years ago, my answer would have been no. However, in today's Fox News misinformation, Tea Party, let's see who can out crazy who political culture...this is simply NOT GOOD.

It no surprise that the republican party took control of the House and Senate, it has happen in the sixth year of nearly every two term president in American history. Every pundit that predicted it would happen could be dubbed captain obvious...it's part of our history.

There was actually a glimmer of hope the day after the election. After getting what they wanted, both Boehner and McConnell got in front of the microphones and for the first time since Obama was elected to office, they actually sounded reasonable.

There would be no more shut downs and no defaults on the national debt...Wow!

How he actually plans to deliver on that statement is in question considering the beast that they have created in the Tea Party.

Both Boehner and Mitch might not be able to control those wild and crazy folks in the House & Senate

Folks like...

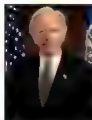

Joe Barton

This R from Texas, was nice enough to apologize to BP CEO Tony Hayward for having to pay for that little oil spill in the Gulf.

John Kyl

The second highest ranked republican in the Senate from Arizona called Phoenix the kidnapping capital of the world in an attempt to fight immigration.

Joe Lieberman

The Senator from Connecticut is the King of flip-flops. As an independent you'll never know which way he will vote.

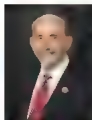

Ben Nelson

The Dem from Nebraska negotiated a huge Medicaid expansion kickback for his state in exchange for his vote, found out it was unpopular, then tried to clean it up.

David Vitter

The guy that defeated klanman turned politician David Duke in Louisiana pretends to be a man of high morals...while in bed with a prostitute. The Great Pretender!

Louie Gohmert

Texas Louie is know for "mentioning" bestiality and necrophilia in a debate about gays in the military and "terror babies" born in the US from immigrants.

Oh and believe me, these are just a few!

So a few days after the election (after the big whew moment) the GOP was back to their UNUSUAL behavior.

Both Boehner and McConnell released statements all but warning the President of the United States not to act on his own on the immigration issue...or anything else for that matter.

Here's a little civics lesson for those of you who don't know. In this country we have this little thing called the balance of power.

Basically, that means that there is the Executive, which is the President, and then there is Congress. If the President decides he wants to pass a bill into law, he SHOULD work with Congress but in some cases if it's for the greater good of the American people, LEGALLY he doesn't have to by using the Executive Order. Congress on the other hand Can't do shit without the approval of the President. They can pass a million bills and if the President stamps it with a Veto, it's back to the drawing board.

United States Presidents issue executive orders to help officers and agencies of the executive branch manage the operations within the federal government itself. Executive orders have the full force of law when they take authority from a power granted directly to the Executive by the Constitution, or are made in pursuance of certain Acts of Congress that explicitly delegate to the President some degree of discretionary power (delegated legislation). Like statutes or regulations promulgated by government agencies, executive orders are subject to judicial review, and may be struck down if deemed by the courts to be unsupported by statute or the Constitution. Major policy initiatives usually require approval by the legislative branch, but executive orders have significant influence over the internal affairs of government, deciding how and to what degree laws will be enforced, dealing with emergencies, waging war, and in general fine policy choices in the implementation of broad statutes.

The "warning" was to stop President Obama from legalizing the immigrants coming in from south of the border...ever notice that when it comes to US policy on immigration, we ignore NORTH of the border? Anywho, the GOP is threatening to do SOMETHING to the President if he uses an Executive Order to legalize those folks that have come in from south of the border. However, according to the 14th Amendment of the constitution - Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

The problem is - Section 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

So here's the argument...

The amendment was put into place to address the citizenship of slaves following the Civil War. The first step in legally ending racism and bigotry in this country. Though it can be argued that it didn't, it just lead to more and more watered down versions of both. My thought is that the President plans to water it down even more in an attempt to legally put an end to the deportations and discrimination of the children of those who have come to this country illegally.

It's possible that he may even go further than that.

All men are created equal...right?

When you consider that Christopher Columbus didn't actually "discover" this country that was already inhabited, why would we have a problem with legalizing those folks that have migrated here, followed our laws, served the country, learned the language, been productive etc;

The thing that I find absolutely hilarious is that politicians talk, talk, talk about it and get the American people all worked up about immigration knowing damn well that there really isn't a damn thing they can actually do about it.

Sure, we can build a wall (using taxpayers aka OUR money) but unless we build it in the shape of an impenetrable bubble...we're still going to have a problem keeping folks out. I don't give a fuck how many laws are passed against immigration, those laws (like every other law) will only apply to those who get caught and when you have a flood it's impossible to catch every drop of water.

The entire argument is just for show.

The other political issue that the GOP plan to take up is the repeal of The Affordable Care and Patient Protection Act aka Obamacare.

Since it's inception...

- Tens of millions of uninsured will get access to affordable quality health insurance through the marketplace.
- Over half of uninsured Americans can get free or low cost health insurance using their State's Health Insurance Marketplace.
- Medicaid is expanded up to 15.9 million men, women and children below 138% of the poverty level.
- CHIP is expanded to cover up to 9 million children.
- You can't be dropped from coverage when you get sick or make an honest mistake on your application. You also can't be denied coverage or treatment for being sick or charged more for being sick. You can't be charged more for being a woman either.
- Small businesses can get tax credits for up to 50% of their employees health insurance premium costs.
- Young Adults can stay on parents plan until 26. 82% of uninsured adults will qualify for free or low cost insurance.
- Medicare is improved for Seniors including eliminating the donut hole, keeping rates down and expanding free preventive services.

- All coverage starting after 2014 must include new preventative services and essential health benefits.
- ObamaCare helps to curb the growth in healthcare spending.

This law program is really helping a lot of folks across the country get health care for the first time in years.

The GOP wants to repeal this law because...

- In order to get the money to help insure tens of millions there are new taxes, mostly on high-earners. The taxes that may affect you directly are the individual mandate and employer mandate.

Period!

Any of the other cons deal mostly with bugs in the program that would actually make it a stronger law and the mandates for employers that are more concerned with their bottom line than they are about having healthy employees.

The other goal of the GOP is to impeach President Obama.

Reps. Kerry Bentivolio, R-Mich.; Steve Stockman, R-Texas; Paul Brown, R-Ga.; and Randy Weber, R-Texas, all said Obama deserves to be impeached.

Rep. Steve King, R-Iowa, warned in July, "If the president (enacts more executive actions on immigration), we need to bring impeachment hearings immediately before the House of Representatives." In June, Sen. Lindsey Graham, R-S.C., cautioned that if Obama released prisoners from Guantanamo Bay, "There will be people on our side calling for his impeachment."

Rep. Walter Jones, R-N.C., filed a resolution when Obama was weighing military action in Syria that said if a president uses military force without congressional approval it "constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor." Brooks of Alabama authored a bill that would make it impeachable for a president to fail to prevent a fiscal deficit.

According to a July CNN poll, 57 percent of Republicans backed impeachment.

The leadership in the GOP have said that this is not an option but the fact that they have members of their party going around the country and publically stating that they are in favor of the idea is just another indication that there are some serious issues.

All in all, I have no idea what will happen over the last two years of Obama's presidency.

What I would like to see is...

- A jobs bill
- Raising the minimum wage
- Realistic immigration reform
- Revising the tax code
- Making it illegal to outsource jobs
- Reinstating Glass-Steagall
- Reinstating the Fairness Doctrine
- Reinstating and strengthening the original Voting Rights Act
- Overturning the Citizens United decision
- Capping campaign donations dollars
- Term limits on House and Senate members - no one should be able to make a career in politics.

Of course. I also think that we should have the ability to remove Supreme Court Judges that are shown to be clearly acting against the better interest of the American people.

Will any of these things happen in the next two years? Probably not!

At this point, I'm just hoping that it happens in my lifetime. Then and only then will we be actually moving away from some of the unfairness that has plagued our country since it's founding.

In this country, we need to stop talking about how great we are and actually become the country we claim to be

Black and White Female Glamour

Images From Nudes To Fashion

By Jack Watson

Award-winning photographer Jack Watson has crafted a unique book dedicated to female glamour images created in black and white to honor the famous Hollywood girls photographers of the 1920's and 30's. With the help of a large collection of stunning glamour models who have been featured globally in many print, web, and video media including Playboy Enterprises™, Watson shows you how he creates sensual, seductive glamour black and white images out of virtually any color glamour photograph. Dispelling the myths that not all color images make good black and white images, this book shows how virtually any glamour photo can create the look of the Hollywood women.

Jack Watson's Complete Guide to Creating Black and White Female Glamour Images includes a CD with every photo in the book. All of the black and white photos started out as color digital files. They have been provided in their original color form for your unrestricted non-commercial use. This book is for those who have some basic Photoshop skills and want to broaden their horizons and experiment with additional plug-ins and software such as Nik Color Efex Pro Complete, Nik Silver Efex Pro, Topaz Adjust, and Topaz BW Effects. It's also for anyone who just loves looking at beautiful black and white female glamour images.

While most of the images in the book are "sexy" in nature, a number of examples show how sexy is not always the naked truth, but quite the contrary. Clothed or nude, the female form is a thing of beauty. At the very least, this book will make you rethink what is truly glamorous. Creating black and white glamour photos will help you see with your brain and feel with your heart. Remember it's not what you see in a photograph that moves you; it's what you don't see. So, boot up your computer, open your favorite photo software, and put the CD in the drive, and create some magic.
